

Christ Church School News

Friday 13th September 2019

The end of another busy week in school...

The PTA held their AGM this week and will be in touch with all families shortly. We are very grateful to the PTA for everything that they do and hope that everyone will support the events planned for this year.

Sunday is Education Sunday! If you haven't sent back your response but would still like to attend, please meet at Church at 9.20am. Children should wear their school uniforms.

Thank you to those parents who have been in touch with the school office to let us know that you are available to volunteer at events in and out of school. Please let us know if this is something you would like to do.

Monday should have been the start date for the work on the upper playground. Unfortunately, there has been a short delay but 2 of our governors are working closely with the planning department and we hope to be back on schedule soon.

Don't forget that it is School Photograph Day on Thursday...

Have a lovely weekend,
Mrs Cooper and all at Christ Church School.
