

Christ Church School Weekly News Bulletin

Friday 2nd March 2018

Well, what a week that was!

Thank you, from all the team at Christ Church, for the understanding shown by parents of the range of considerations involved in making the decision to close the school. We have also been very grateful for the messages of support and concern for the team's own safety. Whilst the weather forecast isn't great, we are very hopeful that all should return to normal next week.

We have found new dates for the postponed World Book Day and also Class 2's Good News – please check the diary dates and / or the website.

Next week is the second week of Fairtrade Fortnight and we are excited about the planned activities but particularly the coffee morning on Friday. Christ Church coffee mornings are always fabulous events! We would be very grateful to receive donations for this on either Thursday or Friday morning. Thanks in advance.

Have a great weekend, stay warm and safe and thanks again for all the support, from all at Christ Church School.
