

Christ Church School Weekly News

Friday 30th November 2018

Please come along to The PTA Christmas Fair tomorrow. There will be something for everyone to enjoy and it will be a wonderful way to start the season of Advent.

Doors open at 11am. Please note that entrance to the fair will be via the side door.

Preparations have begun for The Nativity! The children are so excited already! A letter has been sent home so that parents can order tickets. Please do get your orders in as soon as possible (and certainly by the close date) so that Mrs Arbuthnott can distribute the tickets. Due to fire safety regulations, audience numbers have to be strictly limited.

A letter has also been sent home informing parents that Breakfast Club will be trialling an earlier opening time of 7.45am from Monday 3rd December. As usual, breakfast will be served from 8am onwards.

Finally, on behalf of the Global Group who have been selling rice each day this week and last in support of farmers in Malawi, thank you! All but 8kg of rice has now been sold. Well done everybody and well done Global Group!

The remaining bags will be on sale at the Christmas Fair and we will then be able to announce which House Group won the challenge of selling the most rice!

Have a good weekend, from all at Christ Church School.
